THE MESSENGER

SEPTEMBER 2016

Meghan's Musings

"Love is patient..."

I Corinthians 13:4-7: Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

We all know the verses. We've heard them at weddings. Maybe it was even used in your own wedding. But when Paul was writing to the church in Corinth, he wasn't dispensing marriage advice. He was trying to help the different church members and factions to get along better: to be the Body of Christ. I've been thinking about patience a lot this summer. How easily I lose my patience with others. How easily church members seem to lose patience with one another (or*gasp* maybe even me). And I write this article for my own sake as much as for the sake of anyone else.

I notice that a couple of things tend to challenge my ability to be patient. One is simply my own health and well-being. When I'm not eating well, getting sufficient exercise and especially if I'm not getting adequate sleep, it's more difficult for me to remain patient. Perhaps the same is true for you. So this is yet another reason to add to the pile of reasons why self-care is so important. The other major factor is how close I am to someone. It's odd but true that for me, and perhaps for you, the better I know someone, the harder it is for me to be patient with them and the harder it is for me to be on my kindest, best behavior with them. (As my poor mother can attest, as close as we are, I lose my patience with her shamefully easily.) So, as work week wore on and I got more tired and also closer with the other members of the team, I'm sorry to say that my patience grew pretty thin at times.

When I was a kid I had a record (remember LPs?) that had a Christian themed story and songs on it. I do not remember the name of the record or the story or any of the songs except one that I still sing to myself and my unfortunate family with some regularity: "Have patience, have patience, don't be in such a hurry. When you get impatient, you only start to worry. Remember, remember, that God has patience, too. And think of all the times that others had to wait for you."

Of course, patience has many more facets than simply waiting for people who are slow. I know that there have been some mix-ups lately with volunteer schedules, items not being communicated properly, and the like. I know this can be frustrating. But I would like to ask you to have patience with me, with the office staff during this time of transition and with other church volunteers remembering, "Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things." And also, "Remember, remember, that God has patience, too. And think of all the times that others had to [be patient with] you."

**Lawrence Kenyi, an employee of TPI, has been worshipping with us for several months. Lawrence is from South Sudan, a nation that is experiencing a civil war. We have received word that some of Lawrence’s family have been slaughtered. Details are sketchy at this time. He is frequently with family in Omaha. Please keep Lawrence in your prayers, as well as all of the peoples of South Sudan.

Our Presbytery is supporting the First Arabic Presbyterian located in Des Moines. Information we received at our recent Presbytery meeting is on the bulletin board.

- **The people of Louisiana are again facing flooding. Please keep them in their prayers.
- **Tornados have ripped through parts of Indiana. Remember them.
- **Victims of senseless shootings— the most recent being in Paris.
- **Those trying to put their lives back together after the earthquake in Italy.

Thank you so much to Shirley Stevens, Janet Shields and Sara Hopkins for organizing the Puppy Shower/Meet and Greet with my ZuZu. And thank you to all who came and for the lovely gifts and contributions to ZuZu’s scholarship fund for training. I am excited that we will be starting puppy classes on August 31 and plan to go through the line-up of American Kennel Club classes: Puppy 1, Puppy 2, Basic Obedience, Good Canine Citizen and (if all goes well, finally) Therapy Dog training. While I will be sending thank yous to each of you, there was one gift—a dog biscuit cookbook I’m excited to try—that did not have a name with it so I don’t know whom to thank. If you were the giver, please let me know so I can thank you personally!

As anyone who is friends with me on Facebook knows, ZuZu has brought such joy into my life. I am ever so grateful that she loves people so much and I am equally grateful for the warm welcome she has received from her new church family.

Many thanks and Blessings,
Meghan (and ZuZu says, “ruff!”)

Congregational Meeting

Session has called a congregational meeting following worship on Sunday, September 18. The purpose of this meeting is to approve the recently updated by-laws of our church and corporation. Both sets of by-laws were approved by the Session at their June meeting. This will be the only business addressed at this meeting.

Copies of both sets of bylaws are available in the narthex, for those who like to review them prior to the meeting. The two sets are paper clipped together to ensure you receive everything.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

Presbytery Meeting

Mickey Van Baale, Commissioner

Meghan and I attended the Presbytery Meeting in Knoxville on Saturday, August 20. Items of interest from this meeting were:

1. Our worship service was based on “Hope” and mirrored a service held at General Assembly. James Koopman, our Interim General Presbyter, gave the message.
2. Received a report from those who attended the General Assembly meeting in Portland, Oregon. Each told of the committee they were on and the highlights they experienced while there.
3. Heard from the Sudanese Support Team. A couple representatives from the Sudanese Arabic Congregation spoke about the civil war going on in their country and gave a heartbreaking account about the whereabouts of their families. Many don’t know where their families are and if any are even alive. A prayer was offered for all peoples of the South Sudan going through this war.
4. Approved having the Interim General Presbyter position be full-time position and his salary retroactive back to when he began on May 18, 2016. Also approved having his membership moved from the Reformed Church in America to PC(USA).
5. Approved extending the term of service for our Stated Clerk from 1-year to 2-years, at the same compensation rate.
6. Heard the report of CROSS Ministries and their 24th annual back-to-school giveaway. This year a record number of 1,641 children were provided with a new backpack filled with basic supplies. Some people waited in line for nearly five hours to receive their supplies.
7. Voted to approve the dissolution of the First Presbyterian Church in New Sharon.

Worship Downtown and Block Party

The second annual Rally Day was another huge success. Over 200 people attended the worship service, hearing a sermon by Major Jeff Carter from the Salvation Army. Communion was served by intinction with all Worship Leaders helping, Rev. Zach Bey of First Lutheran, Major Jeff and Mikey Carter from the Salvation Army, Rev. Karen Crawford of St. Stephen's Episcopal, Rev. Don Freeman of United Presbyterian, Rev. Gary Marzolf of First United Methodist, Rev. Jessica Petersen from Congregational United Church of Christ, Pastor Mark Young of First Christian and Meghan. Norm Grimm directed a choir made up of members from all churches participating. Jean Ibbotson and Marlys Grimm served as accompanists for the service.

Following the church service, a delicious meal was enjoyed. This year's participants contributed: Congregational Church - side dishes; First Christian - desserts; First Lutheran - side dishes; First Presbyterian - water, ice tea, hot dogs and all the fixings; First United Methodist - desserts; Salvation Army, - table settings: plates, silverware and napkins; St. Stephen's - sides dishes and United Presbyterian - desserts. Our church life committee served 183 hot dogs to hungry individuals!

Next up was the "Olympics" contests. Those wanting to participate met in the street and were divided into teams. The events started off with a pastor's scooter race. Each church was responsible for an event, such as hula hoop, volleyball with balloons, javelin throw with pool noodles, freebie throw and several others. Josh Ventling and Jordan Norvell maned our church's contest which was watermelon seed spitting. Also available was a jump house with balloon animals being made and music. When all the teams had participated in all events, a reward ceremony took place awarding bronze, silver and gold medals.

Thank you to everyone who continues to make this a wonderful tradition.

ZuZu was even a part of Children's Time.

Thank you, Doug Cutts, for taking pictures.

Mission Committee

Marilyn McCallister, Chair

Mission Committee Purpose: To recommend, approve, manage, and terminate mission projects. The committee communicates about opportunities for mission involvement and promotes congregational participation.

Reports

Mariners in Mission event participants were well taken care of and directed by staff at the Illinois camp from June 27 to July 1.

Work Week 2016 was a successful trip to Saint Louis, Missouri working with the AMEN Ministry. AMEN/St. Louis works with several organizations within St. Louis, so we worked at a different location each morning and each afternoon. We spent a lot of time sorting clothes, sorting food, stocking shelves, and working with children from infants to young adults. One afternoon we were split into two groups, each going to a different location. Linda Anderson did an excellent job in planning our fun day on Wednesday and finding great places for us to go in the evenings. We all went to the top of the arch on our fun day, as well as touring the old capitol and an old cathedral. We enjoyed Ted Drewes frozen yogurt one evening, went to two excellent restaurants and toured and did devotions one evening at the botanical gardens. Our group of 11, which included 5 youth and 2 adults from Brooklyn as well as 4 adults from Newton, formed a close bond and everyone is already looking forward to our trip next year. A big thank you goes out to all of you for your support in this long-standing mission trip. (See a picture of the group on page 6)

Our College Members

We'd like to improve our outreach to the members of our congregation who are in college. Parents -- please send us the address of your college-age kids. We'd like to periodically send them cards, newsletters and reminders of their family at First Pres. Please email or drop a note to the church office.

The deacons will resume their meetings on September 11 at 9:00 am. We have continued our visits during August, even though we did not have our monthly meeting. We did donate money to the Work Week mission trip.

If you know of anyone that would like to be visited by the Deacons, please let me know.

Dana Hashman, Moderator

Budget and Finance Corner

Jonnie Carpenter, Chair

Pledges for the month of July were $9,610. This was $910 below budget for the month. It is not unusual to have lower pledges during the summer months. Other Regular Giving, which represents donations from people who tithe, but do not pledge, was $439 for the month, which is $297 below budget. In total for the month, expenses were $1,115 under budget.

Year-to-date through July, pledges are $3,709 over budget and expenses are $1,500 over budget.

Activity included:

- * Additional memorial funds received honoring Noel Burton
- * Deacons received contributions of $69.21 and purchased stamps.
- * Work Week received additional money from the Ice Cream Social and a refund from Oak Hill Presbyterian church, refunding costs submitted for 2 individuals who ended up not being able to go on the trip.
- * Additional expenses were paid for the Ice Cream Social and items related to the trip.

At the Arch

Only two adults from our Work Week group had been to the top of the arch previously, but everyone was brave and went. Yeah, us!

Building and Grounds

George Wilkening, Chair

A conversation was held with the contractor on the new sidewalk and steps. He, the contractor, is waiting on the final drawings from the architect. We are hoping that the drawings have been received by the time this edition reaches you.

A contractor and roofer were at our church on August 22, looking at the ceiling that keeps peeling. It appears that part of the problem is condensation above the ceiling.

We have also discovered that a floorboard on the second floor, behind the balcony has buckled. The roofer, with the use of a drone, found we have a problem with the roof above the tower.

More details are needed on what the problem is and possible ways of solving it. We will continue to be working on this.

Christian Nurture

Karen Quinn, Chair

Our committee did not meet in July or August. Stephanie Critchfield resigned from the committee and we seriously need a couple more members.

The next concern is finishing the Power Room for Sunday School. We need to remove unwanted or unneeded furniture and put down a new carpet and edging from wall to floor.

Very soon we'll be getting back into Christmas planning. Please have anyone interested in being on this committee contact Karen Quinn at 641-275-1432.

The congregation needs to seriously consider this. We all wonder why we have no children and teens in the church; well, we need to support them. So come on folks. Help us support our youth by volunteering for this committee.

MEMBERSHIP

MOMENT

The Membership Committee is planning Sundays at 4 presentations for the fall, beginning with a program about bears, to be presented by Gary Parsons on October 9. The title of the presentation is "Bears I Have Known". We welcome your suggestions for other programs, both musical and informational/educational.

We also are planning a third "PEW" (Pray, Eat, Work) event this fall. Watch for further details in bulletins, Church Happenings and perhaps the next edition of the Messenger.

Our church entry in Newton's 4th of July Parade, "8 Presbyterian Presidents", was well received and a lot of fun for those who participated!

Those riding were Abriana McKee, Dick and Shirley Mielke, Dave and Jeanette Shannon, Marilyn McCallister, Meghan Davis and Mickey Van Baale.

Steve McKee drove his pick-up and furnished the trailer for the riders. Walkers included Gary and Kay Parsons, Ann Cutts, Val McKee and Terry Rickers.
